FOIA CONFIDENTIAL TREATMENT REQUESTED BY COMCAST CORPORATION

May 23, 2016

Re: In the Matter of Trading in the Securities of DreamWorks Animation SKG, Inc. (LA-4671)

Ms. Jasmine M. Starr
U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission
Division of Enforcement
444 South Flower St., Suite 900
Los Angeles, CA 90071

Dear Ms. Starr:

I write in response to your request made May 20, 2016 for a voluntary response to your question regarding how Comcast Corporation ("Comcast") learned in early April 2016 that DreamWorks Animation SKG, Inc. ("DreamWorks Animation") was engaged in discussions regarding a potential transaction. A description of the relevant events, as known to Comcast, follows:

On April 10, 2016 William H. Aaronson of Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP ("Davis Polk") was advised that George R. Bason, Jr., also of Davis Polk, had received a call from Centerview Partners asking if Davis Polk could serve as counsel to Centerview in connection with Centerview's role as financial advisor to a special committee of the DreamWorks Animation Board of Directors. Aaronson understood that the special committee was created in connection with a potential M&A transaction involving DreamWorks Animation. Given Davis Polk's ongoing role as counsel to Comcast, on April 11, 2016, Aaronson sought to clear with Comcast any conflict which might arise out of Davis Polk's representation of Centerview. To do so, Aaronson called Robert Eatroff, Comcast's Executive Vice President, Global Corporate Development & Strategy, and queried whether Comcast would be comfortable with Davis Polk acting as counsel to a financial advisor to a special committee of a publicly traded film studio. Aaronson recalls that Eatroff immediately concluded that the studio at issue must be DreamWorks Animation and indicated that Davis Polk should not take on such an engagement. Aaronson did not confirm or reject Eatroff's suspicion regarding the identity of the film studio. Davis Polk then advised Centerview that Davis Polk could not take on the assignment.
